

CREDO:
keynotes,
workshops,
business seminars and coaching

Our consultants have extensive experience in the following activities:

- Keynotes and speeches on national and international conferences and workshops
- Topic specific talks for organisations and divisions
- Convenorship and management of standardisation committees and working groups, including the related meetings, negotiations, and workshops.
- Organisation and moderation of strategy workshops
- Organisation and moderation of workshops as part of R&D tasks and projects
- Organisation and moderation of topic specific business workshops
- Organisation and moderation of tailored workshops of a specific organisation or department
- Individual coaching of teams or team members
- Seminars and lectures in the academic context
- Organisation and moderation of competitions (e.g. idea or start-up competitions)
- Organisation and moderation of topic specific international, travels, site visits, and networking events